FOR REPRESENTATIVE.

We are authorized to announce W. W. COMBS a candidate for the Legislature, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

The Kentucky House passed the bill allowing Police Judges and Magistrates only $2 a day for holding examining trials, no matter how many be held in one day.

A VARIETY actress has recovered $10,000 from a Chicago Hotel proprietor for being shut up in a folding bed. Henceforth every sourette in the country will insist on sleeping in folding beds exclusively.

EDITOR Watterson attributes the lawlessness in Kentucky to the Chicago platform. Will kind friends please get the asylum skids ready? There is work to do, and ready hands should be found to do it.—Atlanta Constitution.

GENERAL Prosperity continues to wreck banks every few days. One in Illinois Tuesday, another in Iowa Friday. If some one does not hold the General up he may be in our State soon.

As Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter boarded the train for Washington last week, after having been chased out of Frankfort by his political enemies, he is said to have sung in melancholy tones:

"Lay down de shovel and de hoe,
Hang up de fiddle an' Deboe,
Fer po' old Hunter has got fer to run
Ter de place where de pie hunters go."
—Cynthiana Democrat.

MR. CLEVELAND'S while the "party placed in power as a result of splendid Democratic patriotism has failed to meet the obligations of the people's trust," is hardly worthy of him, said the Stanford Journal. If an old bird like himself was caught with chaff, he ought to eat it without saying a word. "Splendid Democratic patriotism" the devil! The "splendid Democrats" deserve what they got, but it is a pity that the rest of us have to suffer with them.

SENATOR-ELITE Deboe owes his election to the fact that the republicans could not agree upon any one of their strong men, and in a fit of desperation compromised upon a weak man in order to preserve what little harmony was left in the party's ranks. He will live in history as the first republican to break into a long line of senators from Kentucky. If the democrats whose recreancy to democratic principals during the last two years can secure any occupation at the sight of a man like Deboe occupying the position once graced by a Clay and a Blackburn, they are entitled to it. It is about all the reward they will ever receive for their treachery.

THE Advocate says that the sound money Democrats of Boyle will fuse with the Republicans. Of course they will. A sane Democrat who has tried to run things and couldn't have everything his way will even fuse with his mother-in-law if he thought he could accomplish the defeat of the party that wouldn't knuckle to his whims. In about nine cases out of 10 a sane Democrat helps the party he tries to bury.—Stanford Journal.

In remitting for his paper again, Mr. McWhorter, of Mt. Salem, writes: "I love a thoroughbred Democratic paper like the Interior Journal. If it cannot have its way in everything politically, it always falls in line with the majority of the Democratic party and never bolts or sells out."

AN exchange says: It seems to be pretty well demonstrated that tobacco no longer pays in Kentucky. Inferior in quality and excessive in quantity has caused it to be a paying crop but the question arises, what shall the farmer substitute instead of the weed? That is a question that is perhaps hard to answer. It seems however that almost any crop less tobacco at the present prices. Truck gardens are paying only moderately well, while cattle are bringing in a fair remuneration. It seems that the raising of poultry is beginning to cut some figure in our part of the state. This may be called a small business, and yet it always brings in a little ready money. The time has come in all enterprises that the odds and ends must be looked after. Money must be made in small sums and dispensed with care. Extravagance in all things must be checked, at least until the times change from what they now are. It is not so much what is made as what is saved.

THAT ex-Congressman McCrory has lost none of his influence with the Departments at Washington, that he is just as prompt, painstaking, and effective in his appeals for those who need his services, was demonstrated last week in a manner worthy of notice. The CLIMAX publishes a quarterly magazine of two hundred pages, the Delta of Sigma Nu, with a circulation of nearly one thousand copies throughout the Union. The P. O. Department at Washington debarred it owing to the "second-class" mail privileges owing to the irregularity of issue—due to the pressure of other work in this office. This meant an increase from one cent per pound to ten cents, or from $8.50 to $85.00 is the cost of mailing each issue. After repeated efforts to induce the Department to rescind its order, we brought ourselves of one who never yet turned a deaf ear to a needy constituent. He hastened a little message to Washington with the well-known signature, "Jas. B. McCrory," when, to our gratification and astonishment, an instant reply came to P. M. Josiah Willis to "raise the quarantine" and admit the Delta to the mails as heretofore.

The incident attests the continued high standing of our former Congressman with the Chiefs of the Departments of the Government at Washington, and leads us to believe that the Eighth District, instead of losing its Representative last November only gained another one!

Court Day.

Norris Brothers report about 500 cattle and 100 sheep on the market. Cattle brought from $2 to $3. Sheep averaged about $2. Horses brought from $15 to $30. But few mules offered and no sales.

PERSONAL.

Neville Moberley returned Tuesday from Illinois.

Mr. Robt. Thomas, of Paris, was in Richmond Wednesday.

Dr. T. P. Gardner and Wm. Snowden, of Irvine, were here Monday.

Mr. C. D. Miller, of Irvine, was the guest of relatives here Monday.

Mr. J. D. Burnside, of Garrard county, was here Monday.

Ex-Sheriff J. W. Bales was in Louisville Thursday on business.

Mr. W. H. Boggs, of Nicholasville, left Monday after a visit to Mr. E. C. Boggs.

Miss Mary Stuart, of Atlanta, Ga., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jasper K. Smith.

Dan Chenault, of Richmond, was in the city Wednesday.—Winchester Democrat.

Miss Lou L. Hume, of Irvine, was the guest of her brother, G. E. Lilly, Monday.

Mrs. A. S. Hise and daughter, Nannie Hume, are visiting relatives in Louisville.

Mr. A. B. Munsey, of Jonesville, Va., visited his brother, Mr. W. E. Munsey, on Monday.

Miss Hattie Taylor, of White Station, was the guest this week of Eva H. Boles.

Dr. J. G. Boles, of Red House, left Thursday to attend the Medical Association at Owensboro.

Miss Alice Lloyd, Principal of the Madison Institute, was here Monday to visit Miss Bessie Spencer.—Carle Mercury.

Miss Florence Myers, who is attending college at Richmond, is spending a few days at "Castle Cobb."—Stanford Journal.

Mr. and Mrs. Grant Evans have returned from Louisville. While there they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bird Dunlap.

Mrs. W. W. Pigg returned Saturday from Lexington, where she enjoyed a pleasant visit to her niece, Mrs. W. B. Wilkerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Hanna, of Cleveland, Ohio, attended the funeral and burial of J. J. Walker, brother of Mrs. Hanna.

Frank Kennedy, of Richmond, has been the guest of his cousins, Ethel, Maggie and Polly Taylor.—Gilberts Creek Cor. Central Record.

Mrs. Wm. Higgins, Sr., Mrs. Wm. Higgins, Jr., and Miss Elizabeth Higgins, of Stanford, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Higgins on Thursday last.

Rev. W. H. Lloyd, of Richmond, was in the city yesterday. Rev. Lloyd is now pastor of the Christian church in Richmond.—Lexington Herald, April 30.

Rev. Mr. Corbett, of the Baptist Seminary, Louisville, was the guest of Miss Lucy Crow last Saturday. Mr. Corbett preached a most excellent sermon at Republican on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. H. Reed, of Rushville, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. W. Woodfield, of Greensburg, Ind., were the guests Saturday and Sunday of J. R. Gibson. They were here in search of warm weather, but ran into a snow storm.

Mrs. Field Miller, of this city, and Mrs. Wm. Irvine, of Richmond, who have been spending several months in Atlanta, Ga., are expected home tomorrow evening. They will spend the night here and go on Richmond the next day.—Lexington Leader, April 29th.

Miss Bredell, too well and favorably known for introduction here, arrived yesterday, to visit her friends and former pupils. She will organize a summer term in "The art of Singing, Voice Culture, Solfege and Song."

Ladies and gentlemen who wish to embrace the opportunity of Miss Bredell's instruction will communicate with her at one at the Glympen.

The Louisville Times says of Miss Christine Macgregor, who is visiting Miss Ellen Owsley, at Lancaster: "She is a beautiful girl and is accounted one of the best musicians in the city. She plays excellently and is also a good singer, having received instructions from some of the most famous foreign masters."

Mr. E. S. Rowland gave a very enjoyable "stagn" dinner last evening at his residence on Harrodsburg avenue. Those present were Messrs. C. R. Anderson, E. W. Lee, H. E. Woolfolk, Leslie McMurry, D. P. Rowland and the host. Mrs. Mary Burnham, of Waco, Texas, who has been visiting her brother, Dr. J. W. Powell, near Harrodsburg, is at present the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Long, whose mother is quite feeble. Mrs. Burnham's many friends at the Institute are glad to know of her continued good health.—Danville Advocate.

BIRTHS.

POTTS.—To the wife of R. L. Potts, at Whites Station, Wednesday, a ten pound boy.

DEATHERAGE.—Mary Louise, is the name of the 10-pound girl which came to the home of Mr. Elmer Deatherage yesterday.

WHITE.—To the wife of George White, at Whites Station, on Tuesday April 27, a ten pound boy, William Henry White, for his paternal grandfather.

DEATHS.

DENNY.—At Valley View, Sunday, April 26th, Mrs. Joe Denny, from childhood, aged thirty two years.

DAVIS.—C. M. Davis, a highly respected lady of the Newby neighborhood, died on the 26th ult., after a brief spell of fever.

LOCAL.

Free Turnipies about Settled. The Fiscal Court now in session decided to submit to a committee to investigate the turnipie question in full with a view to purchasing all of them. The committee will report tomorrow. It is believed that bonds will be issued, as many of the roads will take them in payment. The total cost will not be over $75,000.

A Call on Squire Long. The CLIMAX has been requested by "Many Voters" from Union to call upon Squire James Long, of Kirkeville, to announce himself a candidate for county Judge, subject to the action of the Democratic Party. The call is urgent and be speaks the petitioners' confidence in the ability, integrity, and popularity of Squire Long. His decision is anxiously awaited.

Mr. Lilly in the Race.

The appearance of Mr. Grant E. Lilly in the race for the nomination for the County Attorney on the Republican ticket will smash a state sure. Mr. Lilly is announced in the CLIMAX. Being an old neighbor and friend, though of different politics, we can say that the law has no more fearless administrator than he. Sober, upright, industrious, and capable he will add strength to his ticket.

Three Aged Saints.

Mr. Delaney Lackey and Miss Jennie Lackey were guests of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Root. Mr. Lackey is 70, his sister, Mrs. Eliza Lackey, is 86 and America Route is 82, and these sat together at dinner Saturday.

The foregoing is from the Stanford Journal. The Lackeys are all related and well known here. Mrs. Root is grandmother of Miss Sue Root, who is pleasantly remembered by C. U. students, friends of Helm, Lackey, etc.

Mr. Bales Will Not Run.

The friends of Mr. J. W. Bales will regret to learn of his determination not to make the race for sheriff. He arrived at this decision on Monday, having received an appointment which is more profitable, less exacting in its duties, and demanding such attention as would render a canvass for or the conduct of the office impossible. We refer to the appointment of State Agent for Schwartzchild & Sulzberger Co., of New York, the largest Live Stock Export firm in the country. Mr. Bales is now the agent for Kentucky, a place none is better fitted to hold than he. In his good fortune the people of Madison extend their congratulations to their fellow citizen.

Mr. Bales says he will give his support to the entire Democratic ticket as heretofore, but the party knew the man whom it had honored with the largest majority ever given to a candidate for Sheriff, would never prove recreant to his duty.

Miss Elvira Snyder, of Richmond, was the guest of Mrs. Bessie Spencer.—Carle Mercury.

There is a treat in store for the people of Madison county on Friday night which will doubtless be the pleasure of many to attend and enjoy. Of Miss Miller it is needless to speak. Her reputation as a journalist, poetess, writer, reader, and reciter is sufficient to attract an audience throughout the Union. Especially is this true of Richmond, where people have been so often the objects of praise from her facile pen.

Of Mrs. Wolff, who is to be the soloist for the evening, we use the words of her teacher, the renowned Mme. Breffeli, who is very proud of her talented pupil. "Mrs. Wolff possesses a very beautiful and highly cultivated voice, a brilliant one. She has entered the professional ranks, though still studying with me, and has adopted the concert stage. She is engaged as soprano in the first Christian Church of Louisville at a fine salary. She is considered the best soprano among the younger set of singers in Louisville."

Such praise from such a source augments the anxiety to attend the "Tattler Evening" at the Court House, Richmond, Friday night, May 7. Go.

Mr. Waller Bennett for County Judge. The sensation of Monday was the announcement of the candidacy of Mr. Waller Bennett, President of the Madison National Bank, as a candidate for County Judge on the Republican ticket, to succeed his brother-in-law, Judge James R. Burnham.

Of the candidate personally, the CLIMAX has thought to say, nevertheless, without impropriety, something might be remarked upon the willfulness of the better class of Republicans to sacrifice themselves now-days when the prospect for success seems brighter by reason of little or no assistance from them. But such is Republican politics. The rank and file toil and sweat, fuss and fight, but the handful voters, white and black, have to stand back when the influential big bugs crowd up to the picneters. There is Capt. Ballard, for instance, who is a battle scarred veteran—his last ambition to be his party's nominee, so near to realization, is thwarted at one fell stroke.

And there stands Elsie, he of the cloven foot, who sold his political birthright, if he ever had any, for a small pot of gold. Where is he now? Perhaps we do Mr. Bennett an injustice in ascribing any selfish motives to his candidacy. Probably his party managers, recognizing the need of "grease" to oil the machinery, have coaxed Mr. Bennett to lead the ticket that his influence and means may be utilized in pulling the chestnuts out of the fire. As a cat-paw, under such circumstances, it would seem a pity to sacrifice an available gentleman. But on with the dance, let joy be unconfined, as it's no funeral of ours.

Joe Willis The Only Certainly In The Lot. The Frankfort itemizer in the Louisville Times has discovered a peculiar state of things in our local political circles. Davidson is in but may get out; Smith is in and out and may or may not continue that way; while Joe Willis is in and will remain in until his term expires, which is after Davidson's, Smith's et al. ad libitum.

The special say: "J. Speed Smith, the clerk of the present House of Representatives, and who was defeated for Congress in the Eighth district by the Bradley forces last fall, isn't bothering about the Federal pie distribution. He has the Richmond post office nailed down, along with a part occupancy of the new Government building at that point, but it is all contingent upon a peculiar state of case. Mr. Davidson, the present Republican Congressman of that district, has indicated his fixed intention of recommending Mr. Smith for the postmaster at Richmond, but his term will expire before the commission of the present Democratic incumbent does. The latter, Capt. Jo B. Willis, was appointed late in the last term of Cleveland, who, like several of his predecessors, allowed the old postmaster to serve out his full four years. Capt. Willis' commission as postmaster has two years to run, and unless the case is taken up some time before the commission expires, Mr. Davidson's term will have expired before he has a chance to carry out his determination to recommend Mr. Smith. The latter, seeing this plumb splitting away from him, may conclude to run for Congress again, may win, and instead of being recommended for postmaster by Davidson, may have the pleasure of recommending Davidson for postmaster. All the Republicans and not a few Democrats think that Smith is good enough for anything his party may conclude to give him."

Burns H. W. Lankford, of the Louisville Herald, is in the city.

Miss Eliza Lusk, of Lancaster, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Root.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Root, of Lancaster, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Higgins on Thursday last.

Was Growing Worse

Liver and Stomach Troubles—Too Weak to Work—Now Able to Do All Her Household Work.

"I was under the care of a physician for two years and he was treating me for stomach and liver troubles and female difficulties, but I only grew worse under his treatment. I was so weak I could do hardly any work. I was at last induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and Hood's Pills and these medicines have done me so much good that I now weigh 112 pounds and am able to do all my household work. I firmly believe I should have been in my grave today if it had not been for Hood's Sarsaparilla. My little girl was afflicted with phtisie. I gave her Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has relieved her." Mrs. R. B. HARTER, 701 University Avenue, Knoxville, Tennessee.

On the evening of April 30th, a Democrat Contest was held at Fairview Christian church for the benefit of the Geo. Hudson Mission Band by Miss May and pupils, assisted by others. A number were present nevertheless the weather keeping quite a number away.

The church was beautifully decorated with evergreens, potted plants, etc. The following young ladies took part: Misses Frankie Doty, Lucile Ramsey, Sadie Parks, Dorcas Lovell, Annie Williams, Florence Burnside and Eliza Wallace.

The declamations were well received by the audience and showed that the young ladies had received thorough training for the occasion. Miss Florence Burnside was the successful contestant, her subject being "The Martyred Mother."

The decision was well received by all. The judges were Miss Larrick, of Richmond, Va., Mr. A. P. Flora, of Richmond, Ky., and Mr. Letcher Owsley, of Lancaster. The speeches were interspersed by music from the well known musicians, Mrs. Logan, Mrs. Patterson, Messrs. Ward and Owsley, of Lancaster, Miss Eliza Lusk, of Point Leavelle, and last but by no means least appreciated by the attentive audience, Mr. A. D. Flora, of Richmond. The following young men acted as ushers and seated the crowd with ease and grace: Messrs. Ed and Ward, Walker, Alex. Denny, John Burnside, Wm. Lusk, Lewis Doty, John Francis and Ed Walker, Jr. Miss Burnside will be a contestant for the gold medal at Lancaster, May 14th.
